

World Class Schools Quality Mark @WCSQM

Invites you to #BeCreative on 22nd April 2020

We are launching our manifesto #BeCreative - the creative power of our World Class young people to change the world.

What are we talking about?

Actually, we are not going to talk, we are going to create, to prove our point.

We know that if our #worldclass students do not have creative solutions for the earth's preservation, their future is at risk. The simplest way to prove this is not to chat on about it, but to #BeCreative. Then our creativity will speak for itself.

On April 22nd 1970, Gary Anderson, a student in America, was creative. He designed the recycling symbol to honour the first Earth Day. His creativity has changed the world for the better. On April 22nd 2020, Earth Day 50 years later, all our #worldclass schools are going to #BeCreative and tweet whatever creative thing their students have done.

Tag @WCSQM and use #BeCreative when you share your students' creativity to join the #BeCreative movement on 22nd April. We will collate all creative inputs to create a World Class #BeCreative manifesto - a valuable artefact, a priceless and unique collaboration of creative students in World Class primary, secondary and special schools UK wide.
